

FULLTIME FACULTY OPPORTUNITY
Non-Tenure Track
2019-20 Academic Year

Assistant Professor (NTT)

Psychology, Social Work

Deadline to submit materials: March 1, 2019

Notre Dame College, a Catholic institution in the tradition of the Sisters of Notre Dame, educates a diverse population in the liberal arts for personal, professional, and global responsibility. Nestled in the eastern suburbs of Cleveland, our small, Co-ed College features small class sizes and a comfortable atmosphere in a community of learners.

The Department of Psychology at Notre Dame College invites applications for a full-time Assistant Professor position to start in Fall 2019. The ideal candidate has a Ph.D. in psychology and/or Social Work. Individuals with a Master's Degree in Social Work plus licensure and 2 years' experience will be considered. We are looking for someone who is interested in designing, building and maintaining excellent program curriculum and standards. Experience in this area is desired. In addition, this candidate will be committed to excellence in teaching and service, be committed to advance knowledge and competence and to promote human and societal well-being. Candidates with experience/expertise in the areas of social work, social systems, human relations, biopsychology, forensic psychology and research are very desirable for this position. As a teaching focused institution, our full-time faculty carry a 4/4 load and are involved in a number of service activities, such as undergraduate student advising and participation in faculty governance.

To ensure full consideration, applications should be received for committee review by March 1, 2019. The position is open until filled. Submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, and evidence of effectiveness of previous teaching (i.e., student course evaluations) and have three letters of recommendation sent to careers@ndc.edu.
