

CLASSES CANCELED!

Students got a surprise early Wednesday morning - classes canceled! Notre Dame College hosted its first Falcon Community Day. Students were notified early Wednesday morning that there would be no face-to-face or synchronous classes that day. Instead, a host of events were planned to promote togetherness and community. Activities included:

- Morning donuts and hot apple cider
- Live music and dancing
- Tie-dying masks, pillow cases and t-shirts
- Badminton, croquet and cornhole
- Therapy dogs
- Community service project
- Cupcakes and canvas

“This day is about coming together as a community during this challenging time, recognizing that we can support one another,” said Dean of Students, Tera Johnson. The events were very well received, and a great time was had by all! Kudos to the Organizing Committee, and all the departments who donated time and resources to make this day a success! A special thank you to Heinen's of University Heights, Giant Eagle and Patterson Fruit Farms for their donations.
